RESEARCH INTERESTS

- Pulsar timing,
- Gravitational waves,
- Pulsars/pulsar binaries emission modeling,

EDUCATION

The University of Chinese Academy of Sciences, China, PhD in Astrophysics.
Thesis: "Applications of pulsar timing"
Advisor: Zhang, Shuang-Nan

2010/08-2016/08

Tsinghua University, China, Bachelor of Science.
Major: Math and Physics

2006/08-2010/08

APPOINTMENTS

The University of Hong Kong, Postdoctoral fellow; work with Prof. KS Cheng on pulsar high energy emission modeling

Since 2016/10

The Institute of High Energy Physics, Chinese Academy of Sciences, Research assistant

2012/06-2016/08

Peking University, visiting scholar; worked with Prof. KJ Lee on pulsar timing

2015/12-2016/02

The University of Manchester, visiting scholar; worked with Prof. Stappers with pulsar timing

2012/10-2013/10

HONORS & REWARDS

Crab prize, RMB 5000 Yuan, Future Pulsar Symposium 6, Wuhan

2017/06/28-30

Highlight talks, RMB 3000 Yuan in total, Annual Meeting of Beijing Astronomical Society in 2011, 2012, 2015

OUTREACH

Lectures on astronomy for middle school students, 10 hours in total, 57th middle school, Beijing,

2016

Contributing editor of Journal Global Science, (Chinese edition of Scientific American)

2015
